Claim N<sup>o</sup> 62.

Under Article 11. Treaty of 14th June 1866, with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, George Monday, <sup>(33)</sup> a Freedman of the Creek Nation, a Refugee, and subse-quently a Soldier in the 2nd Kansas Colored Reg<sup>mt</sup>, being duly examined and sworn; (he understanding and conversing in the English language,) deposes and says: Whilst he was living on his place at Post Oak Creek Nation, with his wife, Mary - who was afterwards captured and taken South - and sometime in the month of November 1862, he was compelled to fly from and abandon his home to avoid being captured and taken South by the troops under the Rebel Colonel McIntosh.
That at the time of his flight, he owned and possessed, and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property hereinafter named, and that he never afterwards recov-ered the same, or any part thereof. To Say:

Award

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony. Also, the status of claimant: The amount claimed, however, is, in some instances, considered excessive. Upon inquiry, it is found the values of the different kinds of property, at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follows:-

Horses.-	$15.00 Each.-
Hogs & Pigs. (Sows?)	2.00 "
Chickens.	.12½ "

and for the following one-half the claimed value:-

House furniture:- beds, bedding, -ware &c. - $25.25-

In consideration of these, and all other facts, attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant George Monday - One hundred and thirty eight dollars, twelve and one-half cents.

$138 <sup>12½</sup>/<sub>100</sub>.
